

IHSPA Convention 2011

This year, feel the Multimedia Power

Be a part of our Media Power reporting team that will cover the IHSPA convention on the Franklin College campus on Oct. 20 and 21, 2011. Advanced journalism students familiar with multimedia storytelling can work with educators and media professionals in covering, reporting, and publishing the Media Power stories of this year's convention.

Each school can nominate up to two advanced journalism students to join the Media Power team by completing this application and returning it with your convention registration materials by Oct. 3, 2011. Participants selected must attend and be available to cover all Thursday evening and Friday classes and activities. They will work collaboratively to produce story packages that will be published on the IHSPA website. Team members will be notified of their selection by Oct. 10, 2011. Please PRINT all information and complete a copy of this application for each student applying to be on the Media Power Team.

Student's Name:

Student's E-mail:

Student's Cell Number:

School:

Adviser:

Please rate the student's proficiency and knowledge in each of the skills and programs using the following scale:

1=Proficient

2=Somewhat Knowledgeable

3=Not Proficient/Familiar

_____ Wordpress

_____ InDesign

_____ Writing Stories

_____ Shooting Video

_____ Adobe Premiere

_____ Photoshop

_____ Caption Writing

_____ Collecting Audio

_____ Soundslides

_____ Photojournalism

_____ Reporting

Questions? Contact Chad Tuley at ctuley@scecina.org or Jim Lang at klang@nafcs.k12.in.us