2011 On Site Contests

Students attending the convention have the opportunity to participate in one of 18 On-Site competitions on Thursday evening. Please note the format for submitting photo entries. Each school may enter more than one student per category.

Students must pre-register by Sept. 30 and pay the $10 non-refundable entry fee. If a student is unable to attend, his/her adviser may substitute a name by 7 p.m. on Thursday night of registration for all categories except photo and online newspaper.

Payment should accompany the form. No entries will be accepted past the Sept. 30 deadline. Please plan ahead.

Students must bring their own supplies. Winners will be announced during the awards session on Friday.

Writing

After listening to a guest speaker, students will have 10 minutes to interview and ask follow up questions before writing their contest entry. Information on the speaker will be online by Sept. 30. Students may bring background research to use during the contest. Students should bring pens, pencils and paper. They may also bring a dictionary, thesaurus, or style book.

Newswriting

Each contestant will write a news story based on the guest speaker. Students will be judged on using a journalistic writing style, use of quotes, accuracy, objectivity and evidence of background research.

Feature Writing

Each contestant will write a feature story based on the guest speaker. Students will be judged on using a journalistic writing style, use of quotes, accuracy, objectivity, evidence of background research, creativity and voice.

Editorial Writing

Each contestant will write an editorial based on the guest speaker. Students will be judged on using a journalistic writing style, use of quotes, accuracy, and having a clear stance with evidence to back it up.

Editorial Cartooning

Each contestant will create an original editorial cartoon based on the guest speaker. Students will be judged on taking a clear stance with an illustration. Students should bring their own white drawing paper. Please no lined paper. The final design should use black pen. Pencils may be used on the rough sketch only.

Sports Writing

Each contestant will write a sports story based on a writing prompt given the night of the contest. Students will be judged on using a journalistic writing, use of quotes, accuracy, objectivity, creativity and voice.

Design

All design contests will be done on Mac computers. They will be available on a first come first serve basis and are loaded with InDesign and Photoshop. Students may also bring a laptop but design software must already be loaded on it.

Newspaper Front Page

Each contestant will design a front page based on the materials given to them on Thursday night. Both broadsheet and tabloid formats will be available and accepted. Entries will be judged on use of sound design choices, news judgment and creation of nameplate.
