IHSPA Constitution

ARTICLE I. Name

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be The Indiana High School Press Association.

Section 2. There shall be two divisions of this Association: Adviser Division and Student Division.

ARTICLE II. Purposes and Aims

Section 1. The purposes and aims of this Association are divided into two groups: General and Specific.

Section 2. The general purposes and aims of this Association shall include:

- a. to promote the best interests of the various phases of journalism in Indiana high schools and junior high schools.
- b. to create a more unified feeling among workers in the field of journalism.
- c. to acquaint school officials and the public with the value of school communications media and high school journalism.
- d. to assist schools in the establishment of better relations between the school and the community by means of more judicious publicity.

Section 3. The specific purposes and aims of the Association shall include:

- a. to sponsor a state convention and co-sponsor regional conferences for student members of publications and other school news media and for journalism classes that will supplement the courses offered by the individual schools.
- b. to make such surveys and offer such services as are deemed necessary by the Association membership.
- c. to make available, a sound, up-to-date course of study for high school journalism.
- d. to represent the interests of the membership before the state legislature, governmental departments, and other organizations w deemed necessary by the Association membership.

ARTICLE III. Membership

Section 1. There shall be three classes of membership: Active, Associate, and Honorary Life.

Section 2. Active Membership

- a. all junior and senior high school publications and other school news media in the state of Indiana may become members by payment of dues to the executive office or to the regional agent thereof.
- b. any adviser of an Indiana junior or senior high school publication or other school medium may become a member of the Association by payment of dues to the executive office or to the regional agent thereof. The adviser shall be entitled to all privileges and services of the Association, including one vote in election of officers and any other matter which is determined by a majority of votes.

Section 3. Associate Membership may be extended by the Executive Board to:

- a. any former adviser who is no longer advising a communications medium in a member school but whose interest continues in the field of journalism.
- b. any Indiana college journalism faculty member who is training journalism teachers or working with high school publications.
- c. any person charged with the responsibility of public relations or publications for a school system or classroom teachers group in the state of Indiana.
- d. associate members shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Association, shall pay membership dues, may vote, and may serve on committees in any capacity, but may not become officers.

Section 4. Active and Associate membership in this Association shall be contingent upon the annual fee to be determined by the Executive Board.

a. payment of the membership fee entitles that staff or person to the privileges and services of the IHSPA for a period of one year, beginning September 1.

Section 5. Honorary Life Membership in this Association may be conferred upon any individual who has achieved distinction through some notable service or contribution to the field of journalism.

a. Executive Board shall determine and confer Honorary Life Membership.

b. Honorary Life Members shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Association, shall be exempt from all dues, may not become officers or vote, but may serve on committees in any capacity other than as chairman of standing committees.

ARTICLE IV. Officers Advisory Board, Executive Board and Executive Secretary

ADVISER DIVISION

Section 1. The officers of the Adviser Division of the IHSPA shall be President, President-Elect, Vice-President for Student Activities, Secretary, Executive Board Member, and Members-At-Large. These officers shall be designated as the Executive Board. Task Team Chairs, Project Team Leaders and Project Team Members will be appointed by the Executive Board for a period of one year, subject to renewal.

Section 2. The President, President-Elect, Vice-President for Student Activities, Secretary, and Members At-Large will be elected by the Adviser Division at its annual business meeting. The number of Members At-Large will be determined by the Executive Board on an annual basis.

a. the Executive Board Member shall be the immediate past president of the Association; or, in the case of his/her inability to serve, any past president may be appointed by the president.

b. with the exception of the Members At-Large, the current officers automatically move up to the next position of the Executive Board during the annual convention.

c. the Members At-Large serve a term of one year. These officers do not automatically move up to the next position.

d. nominations may be made by a committee and/or from the floor for any vacant Executive Board office and for Members At-Large. A candidate receiving the most votes for an officer position shall be declared elected to that office.

e. the Executive Board will appoint Task Team chairs, Project Team leaders and members, based on adviser interest. Length of term of service will be determined by the Executive Board. The number of Project Teams will be determined by the Executive Board.

f. Executive Board members will be expected to chair or serve on a Task Team.
